

LLOYD LARSON earned a B.A. from Anderson University in Anderson, Indiana in 1976 and a M.C.M. from Southern Baptist Theological Seminary of Louisville, Kentucky in 1979. He has done additional graduate work at Southern Baptist Seminary, Ohio State University, and Northern Baptist Seminary in Chicago, Illinois. Since 1982, Lloyd has been an active composer and arranger for several major publishing companies. His compositions include more than 500 choral octavos and numerous Christmas and Easter cantatas, keyboard collections, vocal solo and duet collections, instrumental works for soloists and ensembles, orchestrations, and handbell settings. The resulting notoriety has placed him in constant demand as a clinician, conductor, and composer throughout North America. It is Lloyd's work in his local church that continues to be the catalyst for much of his writing. He currently directs the adult choir in his home church in addition to being involved in worship planning and leadership.

Lloyd and his wife, Marci, live in Maple Grove, Minnesota. They have three children: Stephanie (married to Brandt), Philip (married to Kylee), and Jeff (college student).
